Donations from this appeal will help the MOBILE CLINIC and other IRT projects.

Please could you ask your Parish, school or club if they could help by adopting this project? Maybe your parish could have a retiring collection or a coffee and cake sale. I can always come and speak about the work of IRT. Just call the office and ask to speak to Francesca Roberts or Ros Wild. Every single penny that we can collect will make a difference.

Lord's Resistance Army rebels continue to attack the refugee camps, as these burnt out ruins of dwellings show.

In July, after such an attack, the Mobile Clinic was the only medical help to reach these refugees. They helped the wounded and cared for a baby whose mother had been killed. Baby John is now at our home for orphaned refugees.

- Last year the Mobile Clinic treated 49,000 people and cost us £47,000 to run.
- It was your donations that made this possible.
- The Mobile Clinic saves lives and educates for the future.
- Please try to spare £10 or £20 to keep the Clinic on the road.

The translator explains to me that this elderly and frail gentleman wants me to thank the people who support the Mobile Clinic. That's you!

If you could possibly make a regular donation to IRT it will help us and our projects to plan for the year ahead.

This means that your donation can be used more efficiently and effectively to care for refugees in the best possible way.
